FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mississippi Public Service Commissioners Announce Town Hall Meeting in Holly Springs

Holly Springs, MS (March 5, 2025)— The three Mississippi Public Service Commissioners are attending a town hall meeting in Holly Springs organized by TVMO Community News to address concerns and issues that customers are facing with the Holly Springs Utility Department.

The town hall meeting will take place on Friday, March 21 at the Marshall County Courtroom B (103 S Market St Ste A, Holly Springs, MS 38635) starting at 6 p.m. Commissioners will be present to listen to customer concerns, provide information, and answer questions.

"I'm extremely grateful for the support from my fellow Commissioners as we all share the unified commitment of ensuring that all Mississippians receive reliable and affordable utility services," Chairman Chris Brown of the Northern District said. "This meeting is an opportunity for us all to hear directly from customers and work together to find solutions for those who are suffering."

The Commissioners invite all Holly Springs Utility Department customers to attend the town hall meeting and share their experiences.
